MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD

JOHNNY LEE MILLIGAN,
Appellant,

DOCKET NUMBER
DC-4324-16-0805-I-1

v.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,
Agency.

DATE: April 5, 2023

THIS FINAL ORDER IS NONPRECEDENTIAL¹

Johnny Lee Milligan, Tallahassee, Florida, pro se.

Frank J. McDougald, Esquire, Washington, D.C., for the agency.

Cathy A. Harris, Vice Chairman
Raymond A. Limon, Member
Tristan L. Leavitt, Member²

FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed this appeal for lack of jurisdiction. Generally, we grant petitions such as this one only in the following circumstances: the initial decision contains erroneous findings of material fact; the initial decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of statute or regulation or the erroneous application of the law to the facts of the case; the administrative judge's rulings during either the course of the appeal or the initial decision were not consistent with required procedures or involved an abuse of discretion, and the resulting error affected the outcome of the case; or new and material evidence or legal argument is available that, despite the petitioner's due diligence, was not available when the record closed. Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 1201.115 (5 C.F.R. § 1201.115). After fully considering the filings in this appeal, we conclude that the petitioner has not established any basis under section 1201.115 for granting the petition for review. Therefore, we DENY the petition for review. Except as expressly MODIFIED by this Final Order to clarify that the Board lacks jurisdiction under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (codified as amended at 38 U.S.C. §§ 4301-4335) (USERRA) because the appellant was not employed by a Federal executive agency, we AFFIRM the initial decision.

¹ A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

² Member Leavitt's name is included in decisions on which the three-member Board completed the voting process prior to his March 1, 2023 departure.

¶2 The appellant, a former employee of the Government of the District of Columbia, previously filed an appeal regarding a 2009 reduction in force (RIF) and had asserted that the RIF violated his veterans' preference rights. Milligan v. Government of the District of Columbia, MSPB Docket No. DC-0351-13-1299-I-1, Initial Appeal File (1299 IAF), Tab 1. The administrative judge dismissed that appeal for lack of jurisdiction because the appellant was not an employee in the civil service and because he had not exhausted his administrative remedy with the Department of Labor (DOL). 1299 IAF, Tab 8, Initial Decision. On review, the Board affirmed the initial decision. Milligan v. Government of the District of Columbia, MSPB Docket No. DC-0351-13-1299-I-1, Final Order (Aug. 11, 2014).

¶3 The appellant filed the instant appeal pursuant to USERRA after exhausting his administrative remedy with DOL. Milligan v. Government of the District of Columbia, MSPB Docket No. DC-4324-16-0805-I-1, Initial Appeal File (0805 IAF), Tab 1. The administrative judge dismissed the appeal for lack of jurisdiction because, as a former employee of the Government of the District of Columbia, the appellant failed to meet the statutory definition of an “employee” under 5 U.S.C. § 2105(a)(1) and thus did not have the right to appeal to the Board. 0805 IAF, Tab 7, Initial Decision; see 5 U.S.C. §§ 2101- 2103, 2105; Cyrus v. Government of the District of Columbia, 25 M.S.P.R. 396, 397 n.* (1984).

¶4 On review, the appellant asserts that the Board has jurisdiction over his claims under USERRA and the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act of 1998 (VEOA). Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tab 1 at 4. We clarify that, pursuant to 38 U.S.C. §§ 4303(5), 4324, the appellant does not have a right to appeal to the Board because USERRA requires that he was employed by a Federal executive agency and the Government of the District of Columbia does not constitute a Federal executive agency. 5 U.S.C. § 105. Additionally, although the appellant claims that he is a preference eligible, he has not described any action under VEOA over which the Board has jurisdiction and has not established that he suffered an appealable RIF over which the Board has jurisdiction. 0805 IAF, Tab 1; PFR File, Tab 1 at 4; see 5 U.S.C. §§ 3330a, 3304, 3502. Accordingly, we find that he has not provided a basis for disturbing the initial decision.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS³

The initial decision, as supplemented by this Final Order, constitutes the Board’s final decision in this matter. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.113. You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(a)(1). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. If you wish to seek review of this final decision, you should immediately review the law applicable to your claims and carefully follow all filing time limits and requirements. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.

(1) Judicial review in general. As a general rule, an appellant seeking judicial review of a final Board order must file a petition for review with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which must be received by the court within 60 calendar days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b)(1)(A).

If you submit a petition for review to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you must submit your petition to the court at the following address:

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20439

Additional information about the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is available at the court's website, www.caafc.uscourts.gov. Of particular relevance is the court's "Guide for Pro Se Petitioners and Appellants," which is contained within the court's Rules of Practice, and Forms 5, 6, 10, and 11.

If you are interested in securing pro bono representation for an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you may visit our website at <http://www.mspb.gov/probono> for information regarding pro bono representation for Merit Systems Protection Board appellants before the Federal Circuit. The Board neither endorses the services provided by any attorney nor warrants that any attorney will accept representation in a given case.

(2) Judicial or EEOC review of cases involving a claim of discrimination. This option applies to you only if you have claimed that you were affected by an action that is appealable to the Board and that such action was based, in whole or in part, on unlawful discrimination. If so, you may obtain judicial review of this decision—including a disposition of your discrimination claims—by filing a civil action with an appropriate U.S. district court (not the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit), within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(2\); see Perry v. Merit Systems Protection Board, 582 U.S. ____ , 137 S. Ct. 1975 (2017). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the district court no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision. If the action involves a claim of discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or a disabling condition, you may be entitled to representation by a court-appointed lawyer and to waiver of any requirement of prepayment of fees, costs, or other security. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5\(f\) and 29 U.S.C. § 794a.

Contact information for U.S. district courts can be found at their respective websites, which can be accessed through the link below:

http://www.uscourts.gov/Court_Locator/CourtWebsites.aspx.

Alternatively, you may request review by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) of your discrimination claims only, excluding all other issues. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). You must file any such request with the EEOC's Office of Federal Operations within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the EEOC no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision.

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC by regular U.S. mail, the address of the EEOC is:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
P.O. Box 77960
Washington, D.C. 20013

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC via commercial delivery or by a method requiring a signature, it must be addressed to:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
131 M Street, N.E.
Suite 5SW12G
Washington, D.C. 20507

(3) Judicial review pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act of 2012. This option applies to you only if you have raised claims of reprisal for whistleblowing disclosures under 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(8\) or other protected activities listed in 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(9\)\(A\)\(i\), \(B\), \(C\), or \(D\). If so, and your judicial petition for review “raises no challenge to the Board’s disposition of allegations of a prohibited personnel practice described in section 2302(b) other than practices described in section 2302(b)(8), or 2302(b)(9)(A)(i), (B), (C), or (D),” then you may file a petition for judicial review either with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or any court of appeals of competent jurisdiction.⁴ The court of appeals must receive your
